RNBRA Linguistic Plan

Policies and Documents

The RNBRA has published the following documents in both English and French:

1. Constitution (2021)
2. By-Laws (2021)
3. Code of Conduct (2019)
4. Discipline & Complaints (2019)
5. COVID-19 Operational Plan Template
6. Linguistic Plan
7. Privacy Policy (2014)
8. Motions via Electronic Communication (2020)
9. CRT6 – Concussion Recognition Tool
10. Bourinot's Rules of Order

The following documents are published in English and will be published in French by the end of 2026:

- Safe Sport Policy (2022)

Range Safety Officer Courses

The RNBRA has translated current RSO course information into French. In 2026 a bilingual RSO Instructor will be trained and the RNBRA will offer the course in the language of the students' choosing.

Communication

Questions or comments received via email will be replied to in the language of the sender. All new blog and information posted on the RNBRA website is in both languages. The RNBRA will continue translating its archival website articles (currently in English) to French.

This plan will be distributed to affiliated clubs who will be encouraged to adopt or develop their own linguistic plan.

Events

The RNBRA often hosts matches in English. If competitors are in attendance where English is not their first language, safety briefings will be conducted in both English and French as needed. Range commands will be announced in English and French as needed.

The Fullbore Section complies with The Dominion of Canada Rifle Association rules. Note article 8.05(3)(e)¹ reads:

When communicating with Francophone competitors, officials unable to speak adequate French shall immediately get someone to interpret as required.
